OREGON, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1889.

NUMBER 36.

CASH. CASH.

Having studied the question long and carefully, we have determined to adopt the CASH and exchange plan of doing business.

After the 10th of Feb. 1889, We Will Keep No Accounts.

We have determined to give our customers the full benefit of all the advantages of CASH over CREDIT, and take our REWARD in greater security of our business. Bring in your produce, and you will find Many Great Reductions in Prices, and Many Bargains. Everybody cordially invited to come in and give us a trial. Watch this space for prices next week.

Tickets will be on sale February 27th and good to return, March 10th. This road is also selling excursion tourist tickets at greatly reduced rates to all points South—Texas and California. The Missouri Pacific is the most elegantly equipped road on the continent. For sale by W. G. Wilkins, Agent, Pacific House, St. Joseph, Mo.

—John Bucher, came to town last week and gave us a very pleasant call. It is always a pleasure to meet him.
—The wind storm last Monday night did considerable damage in the way of demolishing hay and straw stacks, etc.
—We are sorry to learn of the severe illness of Jacob Gross with typhoid fever. We hope to soon hear of his speedy recovery.
—Dick Markland, we understand, contemplates taking a trip around the world. He is now realizing $100 a month from his mining interests.
—Miss Ella Varvel has taken charge of the Baker school to fill the unexpired term of three months, caused by the resignation of her sister Vella.
—Cave Hunt is moving this week to Forest City, and will again become a citizen of Holt County. His wife and little ones are in the city visiting with their many friends.
—The series of meetings which have been in progress for the past two weeks came to a close on Monday evening. Several conversions are reported and much good accomplished.
—H. C. Schmidt has taken the agency for the celebrated Advance Threshing Machines and will also sell the Improved Walker & Wood Single Apron Harvester and Binder, a two-horse machine.
—It is an amusing thing to have a party to tell you the times are entirely too hard to subscribe for a paper and then see him borrow the paper from a neighbor who is a poorer but better citizen.
—The Barlow Metropolitans opened their week's entertainment Monday evening with a full house.
—We wish for their speedy recovery. All who fail to see them miss a treat—Rock Post Democrat.
—Married, at the residence of the bride's mother, two-and-a-half miles northwest of Oregon, February 5, by Rev. T. D. Roberts, Charles J. Brontmeyer and Miss S. Agnes Meek, both of this county.
—An exchange says that if by any accident plants become frost bitten, they may be restored by immediately immersing them while in cold water, and then watering and keeping them in the cellar for a night or so.
—Joe Parker, one of the most successful young farmers of our county, was visiting his brother-in-law, C. O. Froust, last week. Joe, disposed of a bunch of 120 head of hogs recently, that averaged 130 pounds at $1.55.
—A rumor reaches us that Mrs. C. F. Day entered the store of Riffe & Ford at Craig, on Tuesday morning last, and seeing Dr. Goodrich and E. J. Kellogg, deliberately threw cayenne pepper in their eyes. No cause in given for the strange conduct.
—C. C. Bell, mayor of Boonville, gave an interesting address at the convention of representative men of cities of the third class, and stopped over in our city, to chat his brother horticulturists. He is one of the live men of our State.
—Lincoln Payne, but better known here as "Cub", is now head cook in the Union Pacific eating house at Osawatomie, Kansas. "Cub" says they have not had any winter there yet, not having snow enough to make the ground white, and that the sun shines as warm as in June.
—Do you want the best proportioned, lightest running, nicest finished, and one of the best wagons on wheels, then buy the one made by the Holt County Wagon Works. Every piece in it is warranted. Or if you want any other wagon new or old come and see me. Very respectfully, H. C. Schmidt, Oregon.
—We hope every reader of the SENTINEL will read carefully the advertisement of Wilson & Quick to be found in another column. These gentlemen are offering their large stock of general merchandise at cost for cash. This offer is good until the 20th instant, when they will invoice and arrange for dissolution of partnership. The people of that section should avail themselves of this golden opportunity to lay in their supplies at such low rates. Don't stand on the altar of going, but go at once.
—The Oregon W. C. T. U. have arranged for a series of temperance lectures to be given by the noted temperance revivalist, H. Brines, to begin on the 10th inst. Heretofore, high testimonials have been given by a number of moral and temperance workers. He is now doing a grand work in St. Joseph, and it is hoped that he will visit our city on the 16th of February. Admission, free.
—The mail subscription lists of the SENTINEL keep pretty good track of individuals who formerly were residents of this county. Parties who resided here years ago, still continue their subscriptions, thus keeping well informed in regard to all the transactions here through the weekly visits to them of this medium of information. Some of them have settled in favorable localities and there they have remained, while others move from point to point, are ever on the go, and no matter where they pitch their roving tents, our mailing department is soon informed of it and there the paper goes.

—Read the new advertisements of Kreek & Watson, Jesse Fitts, One Price Cash Store; Frank Peter, Western Bargain House; Weigel & Roth, and Emery's, St. Joseph; Oren & Saeger, New Point; and Joe Quick, Portland. They will be found in this issue of the SENTINEL.
—We are sorry to learn of the severe illness of Jacob Gross with typhoid fever. We hope to soon hear of his speedy recovery.
—Dick Markland, we understand, contemplates taking a trip around the world. He is now realizing $100 a month from his mining interests.

FRANK PETER,

PROPRIETOR

WESTERN

Bargain House,

OREGON, MISSOURI.

TO REPUBLICANS OF Holt County.

By, and at the request of the Republican Central Committee of the 14th Congressional District, the Republicans of Holt County are requested to meet in Mass Convention at the Court House in Oregon,

Monday, February 11th, 1889, at 11 o'clock A. M., to select six delegates to attend the Republican Convention on Tuesday, February 12th, 1889,

at St. Joseph, Missouri, to nominate a candidate for Congress to fill vacancies caused by the death of the Hon. James N. Burnes.

By order of the Executive Committee.

D. P. DONNYS, Secretary.

County Court.

The February term of our County Court is being held this week, and the court is a thoroughly business one, and they dispose of the work with promptness and in a business like way. Our new attorney, Mr. Kennish and Sheriff Frame are in attendance, looking after their "end of the string" with a jealous care, while Clerk Kunkel and Deputy Webster, keep the court entertained looking after the "documents".

Lettie Vandervoort and Maggie Hagil by their attorney Daniel Zook filed petition for a private road. L. R. Knowles for Ann Wilson filed motion to dismiss proceedings, which was overruled by the court. Objections to the establishment of said road were filed by Ann Wilson and others.

The court on finding damages to Elizabeth Ramsey and Jacob Book, having been paid by Jno. C. Hinkle in accordance with his road petition, the court ordered the road opened and established. N. F. Murray and others filed road petition and application for a change of road, which was received and filed. The court ordered the road established as petitioned for by W. R. Hopper.

George W. Quick by petition asked for a change of road, which was read and ordered filed. The commissioner ordered to view and mark out said road.

The court refused to accept the bid offered for the building of stone piers at Foster's Old Mill.

The road petition of W. H. Poynter was continued to the next regular term. The court ordered the transfer of the following sums from the County Revenue fund: to officers fund, $2,000; road and bridge fund, $5,000; jury and election fund, $10,000.

William Wallace, wife and five children, living near Craig, were ordered sent to the poor farm.
